LET'S TALK ABOUT PLAY

Playtime is the foundation of all learning. It's when children learn how to interact with others, experiment with new ideas, and explore their surroundings in a safe environment. Play also helps build strong relationships between parents and children, setting the stage for lifelong bonds.

How Do Dinosaurs Play with Their Friends?

By: Jane Yolen and Mark Teague

The bestselling, award-winning team of Yolen and Teague present their fourth original dinosaur board book, a fun guide to friendship and playing nicely with others.
